American Hydrotech, Inc. hires Adam M. Kraujales as District Sales Manager for the Greater New York Metropolitan market

CHICAGO (December 21, 2009) American Hydrotech, Inc., a recognized leader in the development and distribution of premium waterproofing and roofing products, , today announced the addition of Mr. Adam M. Kraujales as District Sales Manager. His responsibilities will include the promotion of Hydrotech’s products and assemblies at the architectural level and provide support to Hydrotech’s sales representatives and authorized applicators in the greater New York metropolitan area and surrounding territories.

Adam has more than 25 years of sales and marketing experience in the construction industry, focusing on one of the most dynamic, challenging and robust growth markets in the country. Mr. Kraujales comes to American Hydrotech from Allied Building Products (Coastal Specified Products) where he held a variety of roles including both technical services and architectural sales representation for building envelope products. “His diverse knowledge and success of bringing these products and systems to the contractor, building owner and architectural specification community sets him apart”, said Matt Carr, Eastern Regional Sales Manager of American Hydrotech, Inc.

Mr. Kraujales graduated from the New York Institute of Technology with a B.S. degree in Architectural Technology and lives with his wife Kim on the East side of Midtown Manhattan. He is also a member of both the AIA and CSI NYC Chapters.
